Well done, Y6! Look out Y2 and Y4, it's well below target (96%)

Since our last newsletter...

Bags2School raised £132 for school funds, many thanks to everyone who brought in old clothes etc, we have another collection on 12th November.

Y3 and Y4 had a visit from Nick Wright, to talk about scuba diving – he is a diving instructor and studying Ocean Science at university. The children enjoyed finding out about his journey to be a professional diver, and about his adventures under water as their topic this term is Blue Abyss.

Schools are given money that can only be used for decorating and building works, we have invested this in re-furnished corridors and new paint and floor in the hall. It does make the school interior look much smarter.

Y3 have started weekly yoga sessions with Tina, and Y6 are continuing their musical journey with David, learning the guitar.

Looking ahead...

School receives extra money for children who get, or who have ever got, free school meals. This money goes directly into support for these children. Please check with Ms Laight to see if your child would be eligible, it is a simple form to fill in.

Please support Y6 with their Harvest Assembly, which will be followed by a Macmillan Coffee Morning – this is an amazing charity that helps many people affected by cancer.

We continue to welcome Paul Wilmott to lead assemblies regularly, and are pleased that Fred Swartz is going to be involved now Tom Fish has left Brickworks.
