

Publication Scheme

This is Rufford Primary Schools Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

The school aims to:

- To raise standards
- To provide a quality Teaching and learning environment, effective leadership and efficient management – whilst maintaining a safe and secure environment where the whole school community feels equally valued and able to develop
- To provide each child with the opportunity and the encouragement to acquire knowledge, skills and attitudes to equip them for the ever changing world.
- To provide each child with an entitlement to the National Curriculum, Early Learning Goals and Religious Education, taking into account any Special Educational Needs or English as an Additional Language.
- To encourage an understanding of personal and cultural differences and instil respect for religious and moral values of all races, religions and ways of life.
- To provide learning environments within school which make learning exciting, arouse pupils' interest and stimulate curiosity, that these environments help pupils develop lively, enquiring minds.
- To give each child a sense of "Ownership" in their own learning and to encourage pupils to achieve their full potential, aspiring to high personal standards of achievement, presentation and behaviour.
- To provide all children with a curriculum which is well planned, showing balance, progression, differentiation and an understanding of the needs of our children.
- To actively encourage parental involvement and co-operation in pupils' learning and other school activities, developing the concept of shared responsibility and mutual trust.

and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.
